

Scott County Board of Supervisors
July 5, 2022 8:00 a.m.

The Board of Supervisors met as a committee of the whole and pursuant to adjournment with Knobbe, Maxwell, Beck, Croken and Kinzer present.

Nick Flogel, Business Representative for Carpenters Union Local 4, said he disagrees with the letter to the Board from Assistant County Attorney Rob Cusack and said he wants to see the County utilize Davis-Bacon wage rates and attach Davis-Bacon wage rates to individual construction documents on projects that use the ARPA money.

Ryan Drew, Business Representative for Operating Engineers Union Local 150, said he studied a recent project in regards to bidding and prevailing wages in Davenport. He also reviewed the costs and savings on the project and asked the Board to consider adding prevailing wages to the County projects.

County Engineer Angela Kersten reviewed approval of the plans, specifications, and letting date for the four intersection improvement projects that will be constructed at U.S. Highway 61 and 110th Avenue, 140th Street Place and 110th Avenue, 112th Avenue/Oak Street and U.S. Highway 61 and the median area on U.S. Highway 61 at 112th Avenue.

Kersten also reviewed the approval of a Federal Funding Agreement for a Hot Mix Asphalt (HMA) Resurfacing Project.

Planning and Development Director Chris Mathias reviewed the first of three readings of an ordinance to amend Chapter 6, Section 6-29, D(7) & G of the Scott County Code relative to lighting and the upcoming public hearing.

FSS Director Tammy Speidel reviewed the contract for demolition work at 4715 Tremont Avenue in Davenport to Valley Construction in the amount of $134,900.

Human Resources Director Mary Thee reviewed staff appointments.

IT Director Matt Hirst reviewed the hiring of Justin Reaves for the position of Desktop Support Technician with the IT Department at step 7 and accruing vacation at the rate of 80 hours annually.

Thee reviewed a routine tax suspension request.

Hirst reviewed a service agreement with InfoTech Research Group in the amount $26,600.

Hirst also reviewed an agreement for the upgrade and three years of maintenance and support for the Avigilon security camera solution with Stanley Security in the amount of $33,285.

Assistant County Attorney Rob Cusack reviewed a memo regarding prevailing wage language on Scott County bid documents and discussed Iowa Supreme Court case decisions.

Thee also reviewed the lowest responsible bid language.

Supervisor Kinzer reviewed his request to add the language to bid documents.

Thee said the language would be on the next Board meeting agenda for consideration.

Moved by Maxwell, seconded by Kinzer at 8:57 a.m. a motion to adjourn. All Ayes.
